

FINDING VOICE

Workshop Series for Women

Learn potent new ways of enjoying the receptive and expressive capacities of your body and voice.

At the heart of Kim & Julie's joint adventures is the inquiry, How can we express feminine power in our own ways without defaulting to masculine power strategies? Through explorations of body, breath, and sound, bolstered by pithy talks, participants in this workshop series will access true and surprising sources of power and expression.

Julie Jacobs is an holistic physical therapist and musician specializing in fluidity and ease. www.juliejacobspt.com
